Jewelry Sale Succeeds with Real Gems

On June 5th, the sale of gently used jewelry, donated by PHWC members, succeeded in many ways. Thirteen Club members revealed themselves as the volunteer 'gems' they are, by assisting new chairman, Susan Snow, in conducting the sale of hundreds of pieces of jewelry at the Palos Heights Farmers Market. An annual effort, this sale was previously led by Denise Hyker, whose organization of display and collected items, and finely tuned experience, was passed to Snow, and created a firm platform for the complex one-day event.

Helping to earn the day's sales total of $710 were Denise, Jill Stetson, Lois Stanciak, Nancy Mitchell, Paula McCarthy, Renee Halfman, Phyllis McGuire, Celeste Kappel, Renee Sheeran, Carol Cody, Darlene Folliard, Pat Marusarz, Carol Mineur and Joan Meyers. New members sparkled as they join in Club volunteer activities and veteran sale volunteers, returned to demonstrate the true gems they are. Chairman Susan Snow is grateful for the many contributions of jewelry and the delightful team spirit of the sale volunteers. She promises more information for jewelry collection for the 2025 sale in the September newsletter.

The Palos Heights Police Department will be holding its annual National Night Out on 8/6/24 from 6pm-10pm. PHWC will, once again, be providing face painting and Bozo buckets for the kiddos. We currently have 5 members signed up to face paint and could use a few more. If anyone is interested in donating little give aways for the kids we will gladly take them. Last year 4 members donated well over 150 items that we gave away which included activity books, glow sticks, bracelets, bubble wands and assorted items. Please contact Pam Sylwestrzak if you can help.
